

WELCOME TO HARRISON HIGH SCHOOL
FOOTBALL BOOSTER CLUB, INC.

In order to succeed, the program relies on the excellent performance of our members.

#. Communication!

General information is provided through the use of general meetings, Board meetings, mailings, and program news releases and postings on program web site. All Communications will be approved by the Board (4) in advance before being sent to the general membership. This will prevent miscommunication and duplication. The Board will have the authority to approve general emails.

Communication in any organization can always be improved, and as a member of the Football Booster Club, you are expected to get involved and speak up. The most effective way of communicating your thoughts and ideas is through your Team Captain or Board Member and you are encouraged to use that approach whenever possible. However, a major part of our communication philosophy is communication.
