Sam Steinhauser (Class of 2024) is a multiple-sport student athlete and 1st year starter on the defensive line. As a senior, Sam served as the starting nose guard in a 0 technique. Sam is an aggressive and reliable nose guard. In a 0 technique, Sam would consistently destruct double teams while maintaining leverage on the line of scrimmage. Sam applies his experience as a wrestler to effectively play the nose guard position. For the wrestling team, Sam is a 4-time varsity letterman and region champion. During his senior season, Sam had a total of 36 tackles, 2 TFL's, and 1 sack. Sam is currently 5'9 and weighs 225. He utilizes his strength and physicality to effectively maintain leverage in his gap responsibility. His credentials in the weight room include a 300 bench, 425 squat, 250 power clean, and 455 deadlift.
